

Danish Pelagic Producers Organisation Atlanto Scandian herring

MSC status

Certified as sustainable on the 21st July 2009.

The fishery: Unit of certification

The certified Danish Pelagic Producers Organisation Atlanto Scandian herring fishery is defined as:

Species	Herring (Clupea harengus)
Geographical range of fishing operations	North-East Atlantic (ICES divisions I, IIa and IIb, V, XIV).
Method of capture	Purse seine and pelagic trawl
Stock	The Norwegian Spring-Spawning (Atlanto- Scandian) herring stock.
Management	The fishery is managed according to the EU, Faroe Islands, Iceland, Norway and Russia agreement from 1997. The agreement is a long-term management plan and is implemented in Denmark under National management systems, and advised by ICES.
Client group	Danish Pelagic Producers Organisation (DPPO)

<http://www.msc.org/track-a-fishery/fisheries-in-the-program/certified/north-east-atlantic/DPPO-Atlanto-Scandian-herring/unit-of-certification>